Foreword

Mayfield is our home and the home of our traditions. Our ideals, spirits, and dreams are safely enshrined in her loving care. It is only for every girl to knock and the door shall be opened. She will find new worlds beyond all horizons. She herself will become a tradition of Mayfield.

Dedication

Every part of life at Mayfield holds a bit of tradition which had been so carefully nurtured and developed through the years. As each tradition grows, we lovingly accept it, cherish it, and pass it on to the next generation. It is this that binds our family together in closeness and unity. Tradition is the guiding light of our school life. From the Welcome Party given for the eager First Seniors to the memorable Ring Night, a Fourth Senior's glory, not one day can be lived without experiencing tradition, old or new. It is to Reverend Mother Mary Wilfrid, the maker and keeper of our beloved traditions, that we dedicate the Crossroads of 1964.

In Appreciation . . .

In appreciation for a smile when it was most needed, for a ready laugh and a sincere joy . . . for taking time to listen with an open mind and heart . . . for patience and forgiveness, for encouragement and concern . . . for reprimands that were harder to give than to receive . . . for hours of worry and prayer . . . in appreciation to, Mother Elizabeth Mary, for four years of love.

REVEREND MOTHER MARY WILFRID

The faculty, patient and generous, has given us a most complete education. New and old members help us to understand the beauties of life, the qualities of the world, and the principles of goodness. They have guided us as their children, always caring for our needs. We can never repay them for they deserve so much in return.

Ring Night
of 1964

As a Fourth Senior meets her little sister, she sees herself four years earlier, and memories of her own years at Mayfield crowd her mind. Her First Senior timidity, her Second Senior boldness, her Third Senior superiority are gone. Now, as a Fourth Senior, she realizes her own importance in and obligation to society. She looks ahead to the future and a new world. But for now, happiness is being a Fourth Senior.

A quotation loved by Mother Cornelia Augusta

"A soul of ivory. One which has great resources of mind and heart. One of the things which appeals to me particularly in ivory is the life history which has gone before, when the great tusk was carried through the free range of forest and jungle in the joy of life, and exuberance of strength. After which came death, a great renunciation, a great surrender of the soul, and then a new existence 'in chastity, in knowledge, in long-suffering, in sweetness. Ivory lends itself with indifference to many services. Even an ivory ball is full of meaning, it shows its own individual grain, it has kept such elasticity and rebounds with such a ringing note, it cannot forget that it was once a living thing. But an ivory statue of Our Lady 'Turris eburnea,' expresses best what I think of ivory, and most of all if it be one of those works of art, no longer made, called chryselephantine, or ivory inlaid with gold."
